“T hen he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, “Ephphatha!”--- that is, “Be opened!” And immediately the man’s ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. - Mk 7:34-35

De spués, mirando al cielo, suspiró y le dijo: “¡Ephetá!” (que quiere decir “¡Abrete!”). Al momento se le abrieron los oídos, se le soltó la traba de la lengua y empezó a hablar sin dificultad. - Mc 7, 34-35

Labor Day

“Notes from Fr. Bill”

Labor Day ...they come to work.

Working and hoping for better days. Although still waiting for fair immigration policies, the church and grassroots groups (ESTHER) continue to work and hope for better days. Although these words from Archbishop Agostino Marchetto, Secretary of the Pontifical Council for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerant People, were expressed back in February, they hold true and keep on inspiring the work and the struggle.

“Immigration and hope are for us inseparable: in effect, there cannot be immigration without hope and desire for a better life, for leaving behind the despair of a job that does not exist and a future that is impossible to build. It is hope that moves immigrants to leave their land and their family. However, at the same time, the trips are inspired by the hope to return, as it makes the fatigue and the difficulties of the immigrant easier if he knows that one day he will make it home.”

The Archbishop reaffirmed the pertinence of the church’s Social Doctrine, recalling that, “in the vision of John Paul II, it is part of Catholic morality, which makes it impossible for someone to say --as many times occurs-- I am Catholic, but on this point I disagree with the Church, if it is a matter of church social teaching. Rather, they should say, “I am not Catholic in this area, in this behavior.”

As we celebrate Labor Day, and the dignity of work, and the dignity due to workers, let us pray and work for immigration reform in our country.

Día del Trabajo ...vinieron a trabajar.

Trabajar y luchar por días mejores. Mientras todavía continúa la espera de nuevas políticas de inmigración más justas, la Iglesia y organizaciones comunitarias (ESTHER) siguen trabajando y luchando y esperando mejores días. Aunque las palabras del Arzobispo Agostino Marchetto, secretario del Pontificio Consejo para la Pastoral de los Migrantes e Itinerantes, ya fueron pronunciadas en el febrero pasado, continúan inspirando la lucha.

“Para nosotros la inmigración y la esperanza son inseparables. De hecho no puede haber inmigración sin esperanza y deseo de una vida mejor, de dejar atrás la desesperación de la búsqueda de un trabajo que no existe y la imposibilidad de construir un futuro para la familia. Es la esperanza la que mueve a los inmigrantes a dejar su patria y su familia. Sin embargo, al mismo tiempo, también es la esperanza quien inspira a los inmigrantes a confiar en su regreso, a las fatigas y trabajos del inmigrante son menores si está convencido de que algún día podrá regresar.”

El obispo afirmó la relevancia de la doctrina social de la Iglesia en este punto, recordando que “en la visión del Papa Juan Pablo II, ésta es parte de la moral católica de manera que es imposible que alguien diga, ‘soy católico, pero no estoy de acuerdo con este punto’. Si es un asunto de doctrina social, sería mejor decir, ‘En esta área no soy católico; esta conducta mía no es católica’.

Al celebrar el Día del Trabajo, y la dignidad del trabajo y del trabajador, oremos y trabajemos por una reforma migratoria en nuestro país.

St. Vincent de Paul School Supply Drive

Because of St. Therese' parishioners generous donations to this supply drive a number of our area schools have received these supplies and were able to distribute them to so many students to help prepare them for school and to also ease anxiety for the families who were unable to provide these needed items.

We have received a number of letters of gratitude from these schools expressing that "no child is left behind" and one day will be successful. Thank You Very Much!

PRACTICE FOR CHOIR MEMBERS

Choir practice will begin on September 10th at 6:30 pm in the choir loft. Anyone interested in joining is most welcome. Come join us for a night of serving and praising the Lord. If interested, please contact Sister Mary Jane at St. Therese Parish Center. Let us joyfully sing to God.
